Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Al-Khazali Discuss Political Landscape, Regional Developments Latest Developments

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received His Eminence Sheikh Qais Al-Khazali, Secretary-General of Asaib Ahl Al-Haq Movement.

The meeting addressed a number of current files, foremost among them the latest developments in the political landscape and the completion of the ministerial cabinet, with both sides affirming the necessity of proceeding with inter-political consultations to support the government of brother Ali Al-Zaydi and enable it to implement reforms and confront the challenges at hand.

Those present stressed the importance of seizing this phase to move toward effective economic remedies that activate the national economy and diversify its sources, with a focus on activating productive sectors and strengthening income resources, affirming the necessity of unifying stances in confronting current challenges.

On the regional front, both sides expressed optimism that the ongoing consultations in the region will lead to a lasting and just solution that restores stability and prevents escalation, noting that the region can bear no further tension, which would reflect negatively .on global security and international economic interests