Meeting the Turkish ambassador .. Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim stresses on the unity of Iraq and the relying on the Constitution as a way to resolve issues between the Center and the Region

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad met the Turkish Ambassador Mr. Fatih Yildiz Monday 9/10/2017.

His eminence stressed on the importance of unity of Iraq a prerequisite to region’s stability and regional security, reiterated his call for relying on the Constitution, that was approved by everyone through voting, as a means to resolve the unsettled issues between Baghdad and Erbil.

His eminence stressed the importance of moving away from the policy of imposing the status quo, pointed out that the region should invest in the decline of terrorism to achieve prosperity and stability to the region’s peoples.

The Turkish ambassador affirmed his country's support to Iraq’s unity and taking measures that would support the Iraqi government to address the results of the referendum and return to the Iraqi constitution, stressed his country's support for the unity of Iraqi soil and people.