Mosul Liberation Anniversary: Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem recalls sacrificial journey against ISIS

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of the National State Powers Alliance, recalled the immortal journey of sacrifices against ISIS on the anniversary of the liberation of the city of Mosul. His Eminence tweeted on Saturday, July 10, 2021, “As we reach the fourth anniversary of the liberation of Mosul Al-Hadbaa from the claws of ISIS terrorism, we recall an immortal sacrifice act fragrant with the scent of martyrdom and tears of joy in the liberation of the usurped land and the epics of our valiant forces in the army, the police, the popular and tribal mobilization, and the Peshmerga, so that they all set a high example in sacrifice and bravery.” adding, “A salute to our martyrs and sacrifices And an honorable greeting to our dear Mosul, which today revels in security and stability.”