

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to diversify income sources, transform agriculture into a profitable productive process

From Wasit the beloved governorate and from Al-Hay district, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, at the guest place of Sheikh Saad Abdulhussein Al-Zireiji Al-Ghrebawi, met a large group of Sayyids, dignitaries, and sheiks from Wassit governorate on 22/2/2023, and recalled the history they shared, affirming the relationship that was passed on by grandfathers and fathers, and that will pass on to sons and grandsons.

His Eminence blessed the attendees on the advent of the holy month of Sha'ban and the auspicious births of the Imams of Ahl Al-Bayt "PBUT". H.E. also recalled the populist uprising and its role in isolating the dictatorial regime and preparing the ground for its subsequent overthrow.

H.E. referred to the challenges faced and overcome by Iraq thanks to Allah, the religious reference, and the will of Iraqi men of the political and social leaders and clan elders, stating that Iraq had overcome political, social, and security challenges and also overcome the plight of the recent elections and the distorted reality and gap between seats and votes.

H.E. urged the generalization of positivity and the confinement of negative talk to specialists, emphasizing in this context that Iraq is perceived differently by others than by Iraqis because Iraqis tend to dwell on details and negatives.

H.E. called to diversify sources of income, the first of which was to focus on agriculture and support farmers and transform agriculture into a productive and profitable process, as well as to support industry, tourism, investment, and the use of Iraqi minds in the field of technology and information.
