

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to modernize religious discourse, use media to communicate ideas, address deviations

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with several religious scholars in Diyala on 1/3/2023, thanking them for their good reception. H.E. called to maintain community cohesion in Diyala governorate, stating that respect for privacy falls within the Islamic and Quranic vision, calling for the management of diversity and the adoption of Iraqi components as bridges towards the peoples of the region and the world.

H.E. also called for the modernization of religious discourse to confront social deviations and intrusions, while illustrating the importance of using modern and flexible means in communicating the idea with the audience on social media platforms and so on.
