

Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to improve state institutes and buildings to accommodate short stature people

At an Iftar table in honor of the people of short stature in Iraq, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met their delegation and reiterated condolences over the death of Imam Ali "PBUH" on 12/4/2023, and affirmed that short stature is not an obstacle to one's ability to express ideas and talents.

His Eminence indicated that this segment has always featured energies, talents, and poets and affirmed that Iraq needs all of its sons, and we called upon everyone to contribute to building and developing it urging them to work on presenting their segment with creativity and confidence.

H.E. also affirmed the importance of providing institutions and infrastructures with tools to facilitate people with short-statured movement and increase their integration into society.
