

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Kirkuk is Diversity Capital, its success is Iraq's Success

At the beginning of his visit to the loving and fraternal governorate of Kirkuk on Wednesday 24/5/2023, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met the Governor Mr. Rakan Saeed Al-Jabouri, the directors of its directorates, and several security leaders. His Eminence stressed that Kirkuk, the capital of diversity in Iraq, and its success means Iraq's success. H.E. demonstrated that the stability of Kirkuk and the level of societal and component harmony are part of Iraq's stability; This stability was the result of profound sacrifices and the blood of the martyrs.

H.E. called for greater internal harmony at the level of government leaders, stating that harmony is a prerequisite for the continued provision of services and the upgrading of urban and development realities, noting the importance of the governorate coordinating body, and that its activations is evidence of the federal government's interest in the governorates.

H.E. called for the restoration of statesman status after the mutilation campaign through negative generalization, stressing that services are a basis for restoring citizens' trust in his political system, state institutions, and government official.

H.E. also confirmed that the current stability demonstrated the ability of the democratic system to present a just governance model contrary to the misconception that wanted to convince us that Iraq was administered only through dictatorship and unilateral opinion, stating that Al-Sudani's Government had the political cover of the State Running Coalition, which represented a governing coalition with a national title, illustrating that one of the power factors of The Government of Mr. Al-Sudan is the career ascension of the Prime Minister, giving him insight on issues at hand and the procedure of implementing resolutions.
