

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Kirkuk Airport is a popular demand, today's reality

At the host of Al-Bayat clan, Sheik Wisam Al-Bayati, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met several sheiks and dignitaries of the tribe in the presence of the Governor of Kirkuk, Mr. Rakan Al-Jabouri, indicating that his visit to this genuine host came to cherish this tribe and their national sacrifices.

H.E. illustrated that Iraq has been in difficult and complex circumstances and has been able to leave all the complexities behind, stressing that Iraqis are the children of the present and the future and are considered to be the experiences of the past and its course.

H.E. also confirmed that the Iraqis have only themselves. The trials have proven this to be true, calling for unity, mutual support, and the further construction of Iraq and its political experience.

H.E. held everyone responsible for preserving and maintaining the gained achievements to get out of the bottleneck, praising the urban effort in Kirkuk, stating that Kirkuk Airport, which was a popular demand, became a qualitative addition to the city.

H.E. stated the nature of the forthcoming budget, noting its service philosophy in moving enterprises, developing others, and providing jobs.
