

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Iraq owns long-standing opportunity to achieve sustainable stability

At the host of Sheikh Arkan Al-Masari in Kirkuk governorate, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met several sheiks and dignitary of Al-Masari Al-Tai' tribe, where he recalled the common history they share, calling to review the previous stage without considering mistakes.

H.E. indicated that several problems that had passed were the result of internal and external factors.

H.E. stressed that Iraq had great opportunities to achieve lasting stability and that, thanks to the sacrifices of its people, is headed toward goodness, calling to invest in those opportunities and the renunciation of inciting rhetoric.
