

الاستق Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Security stability is a common feature between Kirkuk and all other governorates رار الامني صفة مشتركة

During his tour of the beloved governorate of Kirkuk, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, the head of Al-Hikma National Movement, at the host of Sheik Mohammed Ibrahim Al-Tayar, the Emir of Albu Mufraj Tribe, met a gathering of sheiks and dignitaries of this ancient tribe, and deliberated with them on public affairs and the city of Kirkuk, praising the development witnessed by the governorate, calling for its perpetuation.

His Eminence stressed that Iraq has left a difficult stage and its situation today is much better than it was, indicating that the level of security stability has become no less than some countries in the region.

H.E. also pointed out that Iraq has all the elements of promoting security, social, political, and economic stability and that opportunities come with challenges.