

Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Iraq needs moderation approach to sustain current stability

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met the Ambassador of the Kingdom of Sweden to Baghdad, Her Excellency Jessica Svärdström on 11/6/2023, and discussed the political and economic development in Iraq and the region, affirming Iraq's need for the moderate and centrism method to exit its crises and transform the current stability into a permanent one.

His Eminence illustrated the importance of empowering Youth, as Iraq's society is a youth one and they make up the majority of it, stressing investing these energies and preserving them from deviation.

His Eminence also called for regional integration to combat climate change and illustrated that climate change demands synergizing efforts and the exchange of information and expertise.
