Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Local Elections are important to enable provinces to invest potential

In His Eminence’s meeting with the leaders of Al-Hikma National Movement in southern provinces on 28/10/2023, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, lauded the state of enthusiasm, vigor, and preparation for the upcoming elections, illustrating the importance of elections for the stability of the South and to enable their people to enjoy the possibilities of their provinces and elevate the service and economic services. His Eminence stressed the importance of having the powers of moderation and centrism in the political scene and possessing its actual position. We also illustrated that it is necessary for the stability of Iraq, as political stability leads to security, social, economic, and service stability. We called to intensify efforts to win for Al-Hikma Project. We illustrated that opportunities are born from the womb of challenges. We stressed internal cohesion as well as following the special teams and introducing the project to the people, its vision, and its ideology, and remembering the lives of the symbols and bright history.
