International Day for Tolerance, Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to legislate stringent laws to counter hater rhetoric

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, urges the collective efforts of religious, political, and intellectual entities to enact more stringent resolutions aimed at countering hate rhetoric

In a statement issued on 15/11/2023, “In a world marked by wars, conflicts, and upheavals. In this context, humanity has witnessed a disturbance in values and a notable double standard, particularly in relation to the events in Gaza. On the International Day for Tolerance the pressing need for collaboration among global religious, political, and intellectual entities across the world arises to collectively support and shape a promising future for all people of the glove.”

His Eminence urged for the issuance of more stringent resolutions aimed at eliminating hatred, animosity, discrimination, and terrorism. The emphasis is on fostering a universal culture of tolerance among individuals, advocating for the acceptance of others as a shared ethos that strengthens love and harmony.
