Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to prioritize youth issues

During Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, meeting with Sheikh Mishan Al-Khazraji, the head of the Sunni Endowment on 22/11/2023, they discussed the current priorities, challenges faced by youth, strategies for addressing them, and the role of the religious institution in tackling these issues. His Eminence affirmed the importance of collaboration among various institutions, the necessity of effective communication, and the harmonization of religious discourse with the prevailing realities. H.E. advocated for the utilization of modern communication tools to convey essential concepts.

H.E. highlighted drugs as a significant challenge and called for the religious and intellectual empowerment of youth to combat this menace.

Regarding the Palestinian situation, H.E. emphasized the importance of Islamic unity in supporting the Palestinian people. H.E. praised the positions taken by religious authorities, on top of which is Imam Sayyid Al-Sistani, whose statement provided a clear roadmap for supporting the Palestinians.
