Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to synergize institutions' efforts to have women in their rightful cultural place

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, called to synergize institutions’ efforts to position women in their rightful cultural place.

In a statement on the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women on 25/11/2023, his eminence affirmed that the systematic approach to women's status is rooted in upholding all their legitimate rights most comprehensively and robustly, guided by the generous principles of Islamic law. This legal framework underscores the imperative to shield women from psychological, physical, familial, and societal violence, underscoring the significance of honoring and safeguarding their dignity.

His Eminence reiterated his call for the collaboration of religious, political, social, and academic institutions to position women in their rightful place in society and leverage their potential for the advancement of humanity and society.
