Sayyid Al-Hakeem urges prior period witnesses to educate future generations about its drawbacks

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with the associates and loved ones of Shaheed Al-Mihrab "May his soul be sanctified," of the genuine brethren on 2/12/2023. During the meeting, His Eminence reminisced about the shared history accompanying Shaheed Al-Mihrab and the pivotal moments in Iraq's history that brought them together. H.E. underscored the crucial need to preserve the mission project, emphasizing that mission projects pave the way for the emergence of the Imam of the Time and Age (May Allah hasten his honorable reappearance). H.E. stressed that support for the project should not waver, regardless of one's capabilities.

Addressing the Palestinian issue, H.E. stressed the imperative of resolving the crisis in the Gaza Strip, once again placing the responsibility on the international community. H.E. illustrated that the world is obligated to address the humanitarian needs of the Palestinian people and called for a cessation of hostilities and the reconstruction of the Gaza Strip.

In the electoral context, H.E. confirmed that the presence of moderate powers in the political arena and their triumph are in the nation's best interest, as they are most adept at uniting voices, assessing situations, and preserving the achieved stability. H.E. reiterated that the moderation and centrism project is instrumental in safeguarding lives and sustaining stability.

H.E. appealed to the associates and loved ones of Shaheed Al-Mihrab, "May his soul be sanctified," to take on the responsibility of enlightening new generations about the preceding phase and its drawbacks, encompassing issues such as prisons, oppression, hunger, and mass graves. H.E. stressed the importance of maintaining the stability achieved in the country, highlighting that the upcoming elections serve as a significant indicator of the endurance of stability and the momentum of building and reconstruction.
