Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls for empowering competent, honest figures to run provinces

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, received His Eminence Sheikh Qais Al-Khazali, Secretary General of Asa'ib Ahl Al-Haq Movement, and discussed views on the updates of the political landscape, the upcoming dues, and ways to support the government in implementing its programs and providing services.

His Eminence commended the success of local elections, and we also lauded the positions and efforts exerted for its success, on top of which the positions of the government, the commission, and security forces. H.E. affirmed the importance of forming local councils to provide services that fit with the government’s program, with emphasis on the importance of empowering figures that are characterized by competence and integrity to run the province.

Regarding Palestine, H.E. reiterated the call for a ceasefire, putting an end to human suffering, and opening border crossing. H.E. also called upon the countries of the world to shoulder their responsibility toward this genocide that’s targeting unarmed and besieged people consisting mostly of women and children.
