Sayyid Al-Hakeem discusses NSPA’s institutionalization, provinces’ needs from local government with Al-Abadi

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers’ Alliance (NSPA), met with Dr. Haider Al-Abadi, the head of the leadership council of the NSPA, during which they reviewed the outcomes of the local elections and expressed appreciation for the dedicated efforts of the alliance's personnel, particularly those involved in the election offices. Emphasizing the importance of leveraging the achieved successes to provide services and meet societal aspirations in Iraq. His Eminence also highlighted the necessity of fortifying the NSPA by strengthening its institutions and ensuring effective role distribution. Additionally, H.E. stressed the significance of fostering collaboration with other powers that align with its principles and perspectives.

Furthermore, H.E. commended the Coordination Framework's initiative in forming a unified political bloc for each political power. H.E. illustrated that the current phase demands the promotion of capable, upright, and resilient individuals who can deliver services and effectively manage the reconstruction efforts in the provinces. H.E. stressed the essential integration between the provinces and the government, recognizing that shared goals of services, stability, and sustainable development unite everyone.

Concerning the Palestinian situation, H.E. reiterated the imperative for an immediate halt to the war and atrocities perpetrated by the occupying entity against the Palestinian people.
