Sayyid Al-Hakeem congratulates Al-Hikma Leaders for winning local elections, calls to serve people

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with an extensive gathering of the organizational leaders of Al-Hikma National Movement in Baghdad. His Eminence extended condolences to them and the faithful on commemorating the martyrdom of Lady Umm Al-Baneen (peace be upon her). H.E. also extended congratulations on the outcomes of the elections.

H.E. affirmed that the election results compel us to adopt greater humility, down to earth, and a commitment to serve our people, firmly believing that the accomplishments were made possible by Allah’s grace and the martyrs' sacrifices. H.E. called upon the movement members to intensify their efforts, express gratitude to Allah, engage in righteous deeds, and connect with our people by delivering them more services. H.E. illustrated that the trust of the people serves as an indication of the weight of the responsibility.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem asserted that the success of the National State Powers’ alliance stems from the public's confidence in the vision of Al-Hikma Movement and organizational advancements, without considering any other factors, stressing the importance of a physical presence in the field, communication with the public, and meeting their needs as best as possible.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem elucidated that the moderation project is the most resonant with the public, it also represents the solution to Iraq's challenges. H.E. pointed out the diverse backgrounds of the winners, including candidates from Al-Hikma Movement, other coalition partners, and independent candidates. H.E. called for acknowledging and building upon these results for the forthcoming dues.
