Sayyid Al-Hakeem affirms ending international alliance’s campaign's importance with U.S ambassador

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met Ms. Alina L. Romanowski, the Ambassador of the United States of America to Baghdad, and discussed the developments of the political landscape and the bilateral ties between Baghdad and Washington, where Sayyid Al-Hakeem lauded the role of the Iraqi Government in achieving security and shouldering its responsibility, in addition to providing services and completing projects.

His Eminence affirmed the importance of halting the war on Gaza and illustrated that doing so is enough to prevent the region from more conflict and stampeding. H.E. called on the international community to shoulder its responsibility towards the daily catastrophes that are bestowed upon the Palestinian-occupied lands.

His Eminence illustrated the importance of ending the campaign of the international alliance and transition to the bilateral ties between the two countries, and stated that ISIL is no longer a military threat, but a limited security threat, especially after losing its social incubator.
