Sayyid Al-Hakeem lauds scholars and sheikhs for connecting people to religion and faith

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with Sheikh Abdul Moneim Al-Zain, the head of the Council of Scholars of Ahl Al-Bayt (peace be upon them) in Senegal, and discussed the evolving conditions of the followers of Ahl Al-Bayt in Senegal and the broader African continent. His Eminence commended the dedicated efforts of all the respected individuals and scholars engaged in preaching, guidance, and fostering a connection between people and their faith, following the teachings of the Ahl Al-Bayt (peace be upon them).

His Eminence also delved into the challenges confronting the global Islamic landscape, emphasizing the crucial need to modernize religious discourse, particularly concerning the younger generation.

Turning attention to the situation in Palestine, His Eminence renewed the call for the international community to bear responsibility for the ongoing events in Gaza. following the concerning silence surrounding the heinous massacres and genocide targeting an innocent population. Furthermore, H.E. advocated for a unified stance and collaborative efforts to amplify the voice of the Palestinian people through all available means.
