Sayyid Al-Hakeem explores Al-Basra service conditions with its MPs, urges promising projects’ completion

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, stressed the imperative to establish capable local governments that can meet the public's aspirations and execute electoral programs on 29/1/2024.

During discussions with several MPs from Al-Basra, His Eminence underscored the significance of successfully finishing noteworthy projects in Al-Basra province. H.E. pointed out that Basra serves as the economic capital of Iraq, holding substantial promising prospects, and necessitates a proficient and ethical team with administrative expertise.

His Eminence discussed with the Basra representatives the political landscape, the state of services in the province, and the forthcoming responsibilities stemming from the outcomes of the recent elections.
