Sayyid Al-Hakeem: The Development Road, optimal vessel to rebuild Interests between Iraq and Turkey

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with the Turkish Ambassador to Iraq, Mr. Ali Riza Guney. They discussed the bilateral relations between the two countries. His Eminence noted a significant development in the relations. H.E. welcomed the exchange of delegations and visits between the two nations, emphasizing that Iraq is a fertile ground for investment, offering promising opportunities for Turkish companies and others. H.E. pointed out that the development road is the optimal framework for building many mutual interests for both countries.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem affirmed that the events in Gaza are a bleeding wound in the conscience of humanity, with the enforced silence and unacceptable justification for the ongoing genocide against the Palestinian people throughout the day and night. H.E. held the international community and organizations responsible for what is happening, warning of the consequences of the collapse of the international community's value system after the events in Gaza.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem praised the efforts of Al-Sudani’s government in providing services and achieving development. H.E. also urged Turkey to release Iraq's water shares to sustain the agricultural process and achieve stability, which will have a positive impact on the entire region.
