Sayyid Al-Hakeem expresses admiration for Al-Hikma National Movement organizations' recent elections contributions

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with the leaders of the movement's organizations in Baghdad on 2/3/2024, and extended congratulations on the auspicious birth anniversaries of the Imams of Ahl Al-Bayt (peace be upon them) and emphasized the unique joy associated with the month of Sha'ban, which lacks commemorations of the martyrdom of any of the Imams (peace be upon them), lauding the dedicated efforts of Al-Hikma National Movement organizations during the recent elections.

H.E. highlighted the importance of Al-Hikma National Movement's on-the-ground presence and underscored the necessity of intensifying efforts to provide services to the public. H.E. encouraged making the most of the Movement's role in local governments to ensure the efficient delivery of services to citizens.

H.E. illustrated that the achieved stability is evolving into a lasting condition, signaling that Iraq has successfully navigated critical phases politically, in terms of security, and socially. H.E. noted that thanks to the sacrifices of the Iraqi people, the nation is no longer susceptible to returning to precarious situations and has attained the current state of stability.

His Eminence reiterated his opposition to the ongoing war in Gaza, illustrating that the current events challenge the previously portrayed image of the Israeli entity as a victim over the past seven decades. H.E. also cautioned against plans aimed at transforming Palestine into a case of a landless people.
