Sayyid Al-Hakeem praises Baghdad's organizations for Al-Hikma National Movement in the recent electoral battle for vindication

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a gathering of organizational leaders from Al-Hikma National Movement in Baghdad, wishing them blessings during the holy month and approaching the blessed Eid al-Fitr, urging them to make the most of the remaining days of blessings through obedience, supplication, prayers, and seeking forgiveness.

H.E. pointed out the value of fasting among worship practices, citing the sacred Hadith, "Fasting is for Me, and I shall be rewarded," emphasizing the importance of balancing between work, fulfilling duties and responsibilities, worship, and righteous deeds, commending the role of the organizational leadership of Al-Hikma, their triumph in their project, restoring their reputation, and achieving a real accomplishment that everyone acknowledges with praise and admiration, affirming that mere numbers are not the only cause for praise and consideration but rather organized work, role distribution, and their integration.

H.E. called for intensifying efforts and working realistically while preparing for the upcoming challenges, stressing the importance of commitment to values, principles, and good conduct as top priorities. H.E. also emphasized adhering to the approach of moderation and centrism and perceiving its impact internally and nationally.
