Sayyid Al-Hakeem: The faithful and patient few are capable of resilience and victory in the end, as evidenced by the ways of life

During a gathering with students of Islamic studies at Dar Al-Hikma School on 24/4/2024, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, emphasized the importance of remembering Allah in His exalted state and relying on Him, highlighting the significance of emulating the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and understanding the authenticity of emulation, represented by the magnitude of the hardship and adversity endured by our noble Prophet (peace be upon him), including the intensity of the Battle of Al-Ahzab, which increased the faith and submission of the believers.

H.E. affirmed that the severity and diversity of afflictions increase the faith and submission of believers to Allah and their belief in His victory and support. H.E. also clarified that Hawza studies are not easy in an environment full of temptations and job opportunities, pointing out that the faithful and patient few are capable of resilience and triumph thereafter, as evidenced by the ways of life in facing challenges and tyrants and their projects.

H.E. explained that the purpose of political work should be to bring benefits to people or to shield them from harm, with many examples internally and externally indicating that it is among the noblest of deeds. Despite the obstacles in political work, contributing to the welfare of the believers alleviates that. H.E. stressed the importance of serving the people of Najaf Al-Ashraf and focusing on strategic projects to improve their living conditions.
