Sayyid Al-Hakeem: The upcoming challenge is a service challenge, and we must compensate the cities of jihad and sacrifices

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a distinguished gathering of the Bekhat tribe on 25/4/2024, hosted by Sheikh Abu Adel Al-Ghanami. Especially Mr. Abu Ma’sooma Al-Bukhati, and the elders and dignitaries of Al Bu Ghanam and other tribes in the province, recalling the historical milestones that united them and the sacrifices made in defense of Iraq and support of Islam, emphasizing that the most important challenge today is the reconstruction of the regions and the provision of services.

His Eminence pointed out that Iraq has overcome a dangerous scheme aimed at engulfing it, which is the social challenge and the division of its components against each other. Iraq has surpassed this challenge in a record time, while other countries have sunk without facing half of the social challenges Iraq has faced, emphasizing the importance of preserving Iraq's social foundations and strengths.

H.E. said that twenty years in the life of nations are not long, but they are long in the life of an individual, explaining that Iraq has overcome its challenges, as others speak about Iraq. Emphasizing the promotion of positivity and recognition of it, H.E. called for harnessing the positive atmosphere and the new energies to provide services, reaffirming his support for Maysan in achieving more.
