Sayyid Al-Hakeem: current phase's most significant achievement, social harmony’s return

During a gathering hosted by Al-Janabyeen tribe at the residence of honorable Sheikh Maki Asal Al-Janabi in Al-Qasim district of Babylon province, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, pointed out the developments in the political scene. His Eminence stated that the most important gain and development is the return of social harmony, political calmness, and the ability to manage differences, emphasizing that terrorism has long fueled discord.

H.E. affirmed that Iraq today is a large workshop awaiting many projects, and we have witnessed the will and seriousness of the local government in Babylon to provide the best for the people of Babil. H.E. called for supporting and encouraging the local government to deliver what our people in Babil aspire to, adding that encouraging officials is an Islamic and Quranic approach. H.E. reiterated his support for Babil province, its people, and the follow-up of its files with all the opportunities, resources, and influence we possess.
