Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Babylon needs concerted effort to keep pace with other provinces’ development process

At the gathering of the Bani Muslim Al-Aqiliyah tribe, with the esteemed presence of shieks and dignitaries in Babylon, and at the residence of the late Sheikh Na'ma Al-Muslimawi on 3/5/2024, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, affirmed that the purpose of the visit is to engage and address the concerns and needs of the citizens. H.E. pointed out that Babylon needs a doubled effort to keep pace with the development process in other provinces, expressing his confidence in the new government in Babylon to start the process of positive accumulation. H.E. emphasized that Iraq has an unprecedented opportunity to capitalize on the security and political situation, as well as the regional and international environment keen on Iraq's stability.

H.E. also emphasized that international response to Iraq's opportunities is evidence of interest in it and an understanding of its stability, urging attention to projects that seek to spread discouragement and magnify failure as a general condition, stating that Iraq is successful by all measures despite observations, and successful officials must be supported and encouraged.
