Sayyid Al-Hakeem “The most significant challenge is the challenge of services, and we have seen from the local government of Babylon and its new team a desire and determination to provide services to the citizens”

In Babylon, a cradle of civilization and history, on the second day of his visit, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with sheiks, dignitaries, and members of the Bani Muslim tribe and neighboring tribes in Al-Kifil district, stating that the Prime Minister is interested in developing the agricultural sector, caring for farmers, supporting them, and providing water through a water management plan.

H.E. have said that the most important challenge currently is the challenge of services, and have observed from the local government of Babylon and its new team a desire and determination to provide services to the citizens.

H.E. affirmed that Iraq is progressing towards a better future and positive developments are accumulating, and we will see Iraq as we desire it to be, calling for encouraging officials and urging them to do more and fostering a spirit of cooperation and positivity.