ءSayyid Al-Hakeem calls to review opinion polls regarding public satisfaction with the government and its performance

During His Eminence visit to the guest place of the honorable Sheikh Hassan Al-Khamasi within the generous tribe of Tufayl, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem emphasized that the visit aims to provide support and reinforcement for Babylon province and to support and encourage its local government in delivering services. H.E. stressed the necessity of adopting competence and integrity in assigning responsibilities, urging to consider opinion polls regarding public satisfaction with the government and its performance, as well as the political forces supporting it. H.E. explained that the political mood tends to support individuals affiliated with political powers capable of supporting, protecting, and holding them accountable.

H.E. clarified that Iraq is on the right track, calling on citizens to support and encourage local governments and to promote a positive atmosphere, recalling successful experiences in implementing projects in challenging times and circumstances.
