Sayyid Al-Hakeem: The Project's holders, closer to us than others, they come before blood and kinship

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a group of organizational leaders of the movement in Babylon province. His Eminence expressed in his discussion with them that the Project's holders is the closest to us and they come before relational bonds. Babylon consistently leads and maintains its position.

H.E. emphasized the importance of sound faith and the relationship with God Almighty, making halal (permissible) and haram (forbidden) the criteria for action. H.E. highlighted that God is with the believers who rely on Him, commending the efforts of the Al-Hikma Movement's members in restoring electoral dignity in the recent elections, where God has blessed their movement, emphasizing the importance of good planning coupled with reliance on God.

H.E. called for faith in the equation of resources, tools, and sacrifices, stressing credibility, principled stances, and prioritizing people's interests over private, sectoral, and renewal interests.

H.E. affirmed that Iraq's stability is important for regional stability and it needs internal stability, emphasizing the continuity of social relations between components and prioritizing the school of containment and addressing wounds over other perspectives and approaches, which is an Islamic approach. H.E. called for pride in the project of moderation and centrism, and readiness for upcoming challenges, emphasizing the importance of investing in the blessings of the project, the blood of the martyrs, and unity.
