Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls on Sunni component to reach consensus for Parliament Speaker

During His Eminence’s meeting with the delegation from the Leadership Bloc led by Dr. Mahmoud al-Mashhadani, Sayyid Al-Hakeem called for consensus within the Sunni component. H.E. emphasized that an agreement among the representatives of the component would facilitate matters for the rest of the political forces.

H.E. also highlighted the importance of selecting a capable individual to manage the House of Representatives, considering the upcoming responsibilities. Furthermore, H.E. emphasized the need for professionalism, integrity, and competence in choosing the candidate, also stressing the importance of utilizing the current stage to achieve permanent stability.
