Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to grant lands to Popular Mobilization Forces martyrs' families, appreciation token for their sacrifices.

During his visit to the headquarters of the Popular Mobilization Forces in Al-Muthanna province, where H.E. met with several fighters, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, affirmed that the Popular Mobilization Forces have made a significant contribution to defending Iraq and its sanctities. H.E. acknowledged the pivotal role of the Popular Mobilization Forces in liberating areas occupied by ISIS, and paid tribute to the martyrs from Muthanna province, who numbered over 600, as well as recalling the achievements of the victory leaders, may Allah have mercy on them.

H.E. expressed his high esteem and pride for the members of the Popular Mobilization Forces, whether they were on the frontlines or among the martyrs who sacrificed defending the land and honor. H.E. emphasized the importance of providing decent living opportunities for them and the families of the martyrs, including the distribution of land parcels starting with the families of the martyrs and the wounded. H.E. also called for commemorating the deeds of the martyrs by documenting their heroism, naming streets after them, and recording their accomplishments, stories, and heroic acts, as they belong to the people and future generations.
