Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Iraq experiences politically, socially, security-wise stability, admired by others

In the district of Al-Khidr in the Muthanna Governorate, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a group of sheiks and dignitaries at the residence of Sheikh Al-Hajj Jubeir Saleh Mazboob Al-Tai, reminiscing about the impact of the Shaaban uprising on the Iraqi people. H.E. said it broke the barrier of fear among the people and shattered the regime's spine, turning it into a burnt card in the hands of its manipulators.

H.E. affirmed that Iraq has liberated itself from tyranny, and regained its status, and now the pilgrimage of Arbaeen, prohibited before 2003, has become a pilgrimage of millions, exceeding 24 million in one of the visits. H.E. highlighted that the religious authority's fatwa changed the equation against terrorism, emphasizing that the sacrifices of Iraqis of all stripes and components liberated the land in three years after some predicted decades for liberation.

H.E. clarified that Iraq is experiencing a politically, socially, and security-wise stable situation, making it the admiration of others. H.E. affirmed that the guidance of Allah is the foundation, and Iraq is heading towards goodness, with positive accumulations reaching their full potential. H.E. noted that positive developments are prompting leaders and influencers to speak of the positives, as expressing gratitude is a form of acknowledging blessings and addressing challenges is sufficient for achieving gradual success.
