Sayyid Al-Hakeem Iraq emerges from the bottleneck, begins to move in the right direction

Since the inception of the eternal twentieth revolution, from the resilient Al-Rumaytha, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a gathering at the guest place of Sheikh Abdulilah Fahim Al-Farhood, where His Eminence met with a group of sheiks and dignitaries from Beni Zirij and Al-Rumaytha tribes, and recalled the relationship with Beni Zirij, commending them for the sacrifices, bloodshed, and tears shed to build Iraq from dictatorship to confronting terrorism. H.E. emphasized that Iraq has emerged from the bottleneck and has begun to move in the right direction, earning admiration from the countries of the region and the world.

H.E. called for focusing on the positives, spreading a spirit of optimism, and clearing the atmosphere of negativity, stating that the outcome is successful to a certain extent. H.E. also called for analyzing the Prime Minister's visit to America and the agreements signed on the sidelines of the development path, pointing out that all these developments are evidence of Iraq's recovery and the regional and international will for its stability, as the security of the region is linked to its stability.

H.E. affirmed that one of the keys to success is the functional progression and understanding of the country's situation possessed by the Prime Minister, indicating the government's emphasis on the service aspect. H.E. expressed his hope for achieving the aspirations of the people.
