Sayyid Al-Hakeem: popular satisfaction stems from the government’s vision, service, and developmental projects, as people witness, live completion details

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with Her Excellency Ms. Kathy Bunka, the newly appointed Canadian Ambassador to Iraq, and discussed the political developments in Iraq and the region, underscoring the importance of the current stability and its positive impact on the security of both Iraq and the region. His Eminence emphasized the need to sustain this stability and transform it into lasting peace, holding all parties responsible for achieving this goal.

H.E. highlighted the public's satisfaction with the government and the political powers supporting it, noting that this approval is a result of the government's vision and its service and development projects, which citizens are beginning to see and experience.

H.E. also stressed the importance of enhancing ties with Canada, as Iraq offers promising opportunities in the fields of construction and reconstruction. H.E. called for the investment of these opportunities through the presence of Canadian companies in the Iraqi market.

Furthermore, H.E. reiterated our demand for the implementation of international resolutions, a ceasefire in Gaza, and the provision of aid to the Palestinian people who are facing genocide.
