Sayyid Al-Hakeem Stresses Maintaining Componential Balance, to Preserve National Identity

At the guesthouse of Sheikh Hadi Al-Alawi Al-Bidairi, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, discussed his connection with Al-Bidair family and recalled their historical moments shared in confronting dictatorship and combating terrorism. His Eminence emphasized the need to maintain components' balance within Iraq and preserve the national identity of the Iraqi people. H.E. underscored that past, present, and future are interconnected, urging a comparison between the current situation and the past to identify positive differences across various aspects, demonstrating that Iraq is progressing and moving in the right direction with continuous improvement.

H.E. highlighted that the achievements made are the result of the sacrifices and bloodshed endured by the Iraqi people and the community's support for the supreme religious authority.

H.E. called for updating goals, with a focus on services, reconstruction, and infrastructure.

H.E. stressed the need to invest resources and capabilities in Al-Diwaniyah to provide services that citizens can experience and see daily.

H.E. affirmed that a significant breakthrough is achievable in all sectors by leveraging the current stability and encouraged promoting positivity, recognizing the accomplishments, and demanding further progress.
