Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem: There are indicators of optimism, including relative financial abundance and the desire for success for both the federal government and local governments.

From the district of Hamza in the Diwaniyah province, and in the gathering hosted by the late Sheikh Hussein Ali Al-Shaalan in the Emirate of Al-Khaza'il, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a group of sheiks and dignitaries of Al-Khaza'il, led by Sheikh Zuhair Ali Al-Shaalan. H.E. stated that Iraq has suffered from agendas that attempted to disrupt the situation in Iraq, but by the grace of Allah, we have overcome all challenges, making Iraq stronger than before and immune to sectarianism and the problems intended to engulf Iraq. H.E. also highlighted the role of the supreme religious authority in this regard.

H.E. expressed his optimism that the situation is heading toward improvement, citing indicators such as relative financial abundance and the desire for success for both the federal government and local governments. H.E. pointed out the nature of the projects awaiting Diwaniyah, which could change its service reality while emphasizing the importance of spreading positivity and optimism and encouraging officials to do more.
