Sayyid Al-Hakeem Visits Al-Abbas Combat Brigade, commends Its heroic roles

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, visited the headquarters of Al-Abbas Brigade, where H.E. met with several officers and ranks, praising the heroic roles of this brigade and commemorating its martyrs, emphasizing the pivotal and heroic roles witnessed by the large number of martyrs among its members.

H.E. emphasized the continuous development of military, technical, physical, and logistical performance.

H.E. spoke about the centrality of Iraq at the beginning and end of history and everything in between.

H.E. also pointed to the role played by Al-Shaabaniyah uprising in confronting the Saddam regime, illustrating how the nation was mobilized to confront and break the barrier of fear, raising the banner of allegiance to Ali (peace be upon him). H.E. explained that history repeats itself with ISIL, where the tactical mission was to confront terrorism, while the strategic goal was to prepare for the centrality of Iraq in the grand reform project.

H.E. highlighted that Al-Abbas Combat Brigade bears multiple responsibilities, firstly for the title it carries and the value of this title, and secondly for its affiliation with the holy threshold, wishing them success, guidance, and victory in their assigned tasks.
