Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Turkmen are people of loyalty, devotion, and sacrifice, and suffers injustice and oppression

During his meeting with a large gathering of Turkmen in the holy city of Karbala, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, reminisced about the relationship H.E. shares with them, emphasizing their qualities of loyalty, devotion, and sacrifice. H.E. noted that they have endured injustice and oppression, and, regrettably, they have not received their full rights after 2003. The Turkmen in Tal Afar was at the forefront against terrorism, H.E. pointed out, highlighting the sacrifices made by Iraqis for Islam and Iraq. H.E. stressed that Allah will not neglect to deliver justice to the martyrs, affirming that the Turkmen are among the most devoted to the rituals of Imam Hussain.

H.E. emphasized the complementary nature of the pillars that have preserved Iraqi society, represented by the religious authority, Iraqi tribes, and the rituals of Imam Hussain. H.E. stated that Iraq today is stronger than ever and will be the axis of the end of history as it was at its beginning.
