Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Today's stable Iraq is sacrifices, contributions, tears' result

At the guesthouse of the Al-Manageesh tribe, hosted by Sheikh Ali Al-Manageeshi, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with several dignitaries from this esteemed tribe and neighboring tribes. H.E. reminisced with them about the relationships that have always been beneficial for Iraq.

H.E. stated that the current stability of Iraq is the result of immense sacrifices, contributions, blood, and tears.

H.E. emphasized that Iraq has faced significant challenges and emerged victorious, noting that other nations might have struggled with such challenges for many years. He highlighted that providing services remains a priority, and success in this area is essential, just as it has been in other areas. The federal government and the local government in Karbala are committed and determined to achieve this.
