Sayyid Al-Hakeem emphasizes the triad that has safeguarded Iraq's preservation importance: blessed Supreme Religious Authority, Iraqi tribes, Husseini rituals

In the district of Al-Hindiya in the holy province of Karbala, at the guesthouse of Sheikh Mohammed Abdul Ameer, the head of Al-Jarrah tribe - Bani Hassan, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with several sheiks and dignitaries. H.E. reiterated the importance of maintaining communication with the Iraqi tribes, praising the history of Bani Hassan and their service to the visitors of Ahl Al-Bayt (peace be upon them).

H.E. emphasized the importance of preserving the triad that has safeguarded Iraq: the blessed religious authority, the Iraqi tribes, and the Husseini rituals. H.E. praised the resilience of the Iraqi people in overcoming the challenges faced by Iraq.

H.E. expressed his confidence in overcoming the challenge of providing services, noting that Karbala is a model province in terms of construction and development.
