Sayyid Al-Hakeem: preserving balance, component representation, fundamental for stability

At the guesthouse of dear brother, Sheikh Mubdir Hadi Al-Fatlawi, in Al-Hindiyah district, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a gathering of sheiks and dignitaries from Al-Fatlah tribe in the holy city of Karbala. H.E. reminisced about the shared memories with the Al-Fatlah tribe during the confrontations against dictatorship, and terrorism, and in the building of the Iraqi experience.

H.E. praised the role of Iraqi tribes as one of the most significant pillars of Iraqi society. H.E. stressed the importance of maintaining balance and inclusive representation, noting that this equilibrium leads to stability. H.E. also emphasized the importance of achieving victory in the fields of services, reconstruction, and development, commending the role played by both the federal and local governments in providing services, while calling for error reduction and performance improvement.
