Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls for Faili community justice, honor their sacrifices

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with Mr. Tariq Al-Mandalawi, head of the National Conference for Faili Kurds. His Eminence emphasized the need to grant the rightful entitlements to the indigenous Fayli community and to compensate them for the suffering and targeting they have endured, both for their ethnic identity and their affiliation with the followers of Ahl Al-Bayt (peace be upon them).

H.E. urged the documentation of these sacrifices to educate current and future generations about the hardships faced by the Faili Kurds and the crimes committed by the former regime against the Iraqi people, including the Failis.

H.E. also called for the enactment of laws specific to this esteemed community, stressing the importance of honoring Faili symbols and leaders and promoting the political and social unity of the community.
