Sayyid Al-Hakeem meets Al-Khat National Movement delegation, emphasizes youth support and empowerment

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a delegation from the Al-Khat National Movement, listening to their vision, principles, and political approach. His Eminence emphasized the importance of empowering youth and urged new political movements to recognize the youthful nature of Iraqi society, the significant youth population, and the opportunities available to this demographic.

H.E. also stated that Al-Hikma National Movement is ready to share its experiences with any parties interested in learning from them. H.E. mentioned that youth empowerment is a key focus for Al-Hikma National Movement, with numerous successful examples in this area.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem underscored the importance of moderation and centrism, noting that this approach is essential for Iraq's present and future. H.E. pointed out that moderation is a strength and a challenging path, contrary to the belief that it is a sign of weakness and an easier route.

H.E. called for engaging in social work alongside political activities, emphasizing the need to serve the public with the available resources, as serving people is the most direct way to gain Allah's content.
