Sayyid Al-Hakeem stresses social mobilization, field engagement, citizen service importance

During His Eminence’s meeting with the central committees of the General Authority of Al-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem , the head of Al-Hikma National Movement, stated, "The Authority is crucial as it provides legitimacy to all aspects of the movement, and it requires activating its central committees."

Sayyid Al-HAkem explained that auditing is a constant context within all sectors of Al-Hikma National Movement, renewing the motto "We audit to progress." Therefore, periodic reviews of members, their work nature, and assigned tasks are necessary.

His Eminence clarified that the cessation of membership in the General Authority does not mean the cessation of membership in Al-Hikma National Movement, stressing the importance of education and conveying recommendations, observations, and informing General Authority members about positions and its reasons and consequences.

H.E. called for differentiation between organizational work and work as a General Authority member, emphasizing the importance of readiness for upcoming challenges and stressing the importance of social mobilization, field engagement, and citizen service to the best of their abilities.
