Sayyid Al-Hakeem stresses balance between salaries need, living cost, inflation

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a delegation from the Salary Scale Coordination Committee in the presence of representatives from employees of most ministries concerned in Baghdad and the provinces. After listening to their demands, His Eminence affirmed the legitimacy of these demands, praising the discipline of the coordination committee and its adherence to its demands.

His Eminence also stressed that the government and political powers are committed to achieving social justice and fair distribution of wealth, emphasizing the necessity of balancing salaries, the cost of living, and high prices.

H.E. discussed the current stability in the country on political, social, and security levels, stating that maintaining it is everyone's responsibility so that the government can successfully implement its service and reconstruction programs.
