Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to take care of Nineveh’s Suburbs, change its service, urban reality, redress ISIS’s aftermath

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with Mr. Abdulqadir Al-Dekheel, the Governor of Nineveh, and discussed the local government's plans and programs to improve the province and serve its residents and districts. His Eminence also accepted his invitation to visit the province.

H.E. stressed the importance of preserving social diversity in Nineveh, highlighting that it represents a microcosm of Iraq with its various communities, and advocated for managing this diversity effectively within Nineveh and across Iraq.

H.E. called for focused efforts on the province's districts, aiming to enhance their infrastructure and services and compensate for the damages incurred during the ISIS occupation.

H.E. emphasized the need for strong collaboration between the Governor of Nineveh and the Provincial Council. H.E. highlighted the importance of being open to all stakeholders and creating a conducive environment for attracting investments. Additionally, H.E. pointed out the significance of preserving archaeological sites and developing the province's industrial and agricultural sectors.
