Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to leverage regional strategic projects to foster attraction and unity among its countries

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a media delegation from the sisterly State of Kuwait. The delegation was led by Mr. Adnan Al-Rashid, President of the Kuwait Journalists Association, and Mr. Youssif Al-Marzouk, Editor-in-Chief of Al-Anba newspaper, along with the acting Kuwaiti ambassador in Baghdad, Counselor Fahd Al-Fadhli. Mr. Hakim emphasized the deep historical ties between Iraq and Kuwait and stressed the importance of maintaining these relations by activating the commonalities that unite the two countries and their peoples.

His Eminence underscored the importance of dialogue to resolve regional issues and promote moderation and centrism over other approaches. He reiterated his call to leverage strategic projects in the region to serve as a unifying and attractive force among its countries.

H.E. also highlighted the positive changes in Iraq, noting that the visiting delegation observed significant developments and urban progress compared to previous visits. H.E. attributed this progress to several factors, including political, social, and security stability, which have propelled construction and development and fostered public satisfaction with the government and its supporting political forces. Additionally, he pointed out the shift in regional and international perceptions, which now view Iraq's stability as essential for the stability of the region and its countries.
